Forbes Top 10 Richest US Veterans Some of the world's most powerful men and women are also the most generous, according to the 2018 Forbes Billionaires List — and one of the richest of all is a military veteran who's not even eligible to be on the list. Kimberly-Clark, maker of Kleenex, writes a hefty check every year to a national nonprofit that helps orphans. Sam Walton, the retail magnate who co-founded Wal-Mart, has given at least $60 million to his alma mater in his adopted home state of Arkansas. Generous people aren't just limited to billionaires. Among those who are less rich but given to charity by their own wallets are many other veterans, a new study finds. The study, released Wednesday by Goldwater Institute, a conservative legal group, found that nearly 300,000 veterans who served in the US military since 2000 have had a financial giving rate of at least $2,000 over an average of seven years. The donors, who lived in 44 states and the District of Columbia, donated a total of $2.8 billion to top charity groups since 2000. And only a few of them served in wars, the study found. "Most of the money goes to veterans' groups that serve U.S. military personnel," it said. "Military veterans make up only 2% of veterans living in poverty nationwide." In fact, the top non-veteran giving veterans are all retired teachers. And nearly 30% of the veterans surveyed donated at least $2,000 in some years to at least one military organization. That includes Dan and Betsy Snider — who received a public education from IBM in Las Vegas, according to Army papers. In their US Air Force stints, the couple gave $1.6 million to the Childrens' Home Society, a Florida-based

Features Key:

Level Up Monster Deck: Add new monsters directly to your dungeon. Increase XP rewards for monster kills (up to 20%) and tag friendly monsters with special tags.

Search Dungeon Deck: Quickly access monsters that match your pre-existing monster deck and your favorite monsters.

Master Dungeon Deck: Use the d20 System to quickly create a custom Dungeon Deck.

Manage Dungeon Deck: Trim your dungeon decks, add or remove monsters and tag monsters.

Key Differences:

- Change Dungeon Deck takes only one step as opposed to multiple clicks.
- Tag monsters with Special Tags adds new playable combinations to dungeon.
- Tags such as Mystic, Legendary or even Discipline add additional bonuses to monster bonuses.
- Posing Mode props up the dungeon canvas and allows you to show monsters in order to admire their true proportions.
- Compared to the latest demo, monsters are now better arranged to better represent a traditional grid packed dungeon.
- Retro mode treats level up as a tournament system where you collect badges and fight better monsters to get the best possible hero.
- Keyboard commands allow for rapid dungeon creation at any level.
- Monsters now have health (up to 62k hp).
- Completely new hero system - click the Hero Card to play!
- Movement is no longer tied to the surface. If you fall into the lava, you fall into the lava.
- Double press of attack to execute double strike.

- Misc. increase and decrease stats and attack power, replace attack/defense stats, etc.
 - You can now decide whether to target foes or monsters in battle. You can even target monsters from across a dungeon room.
 - You can now ship monsters from one dungeon room to another.
 - Reactive damage system - watch out for your companions.
 - Special tags have been increased from three to 12.
 - New tags!
 - Acolyte - 100% chance to heal, 75% chance to reduce/stop damage, and 50% chance to see enemies in Dungeon
 - Divine - 50

What's new:

! I wanted to extend a special thank you to the every day amazing rpg members of Los Encontrados for coming up with the 3 panel piece about the class updates. It was my first time ever doing a digital comic and it was a lot of fun, I hope you guys enjoy it! Also, like I mentioned last week, we will be updating some monsters with slightly different abilities this Monday, here's what we've announced so far: - Tengu (Spring 2018) - Minotaur (Spring 2018) - Krunegame (Spring 2018) - Berserker (Spring 2018) - Moor Witch (Spring 2018) - Ghost (Spring 2018) - Eradite (Spring 2018)

UPDATE: As of November 15th, we are putting down our stance in regards to support with the webcomics program. We are sorry for the inconvenience and if you were looking forward to the website integration, stay tuned for more info on that front! We want to encourage you to check out the Monster Meta site in particular. It is entirely under work, but it showcases individual class updates, class updates that will be arriving in the future, as well as a bunch of monster and class updates already online! It's going to be growing and changing in the coming months as we make revisions and adjustments to the monsters. If you haven't been reading our updates or keeping up with our discussion posts, I'd encourage you to check out our class lists so that you can follow our direction as we update the monsters. If you are joining a group fight so that you can get some official action, sign up to be with your local MU's! That's how we usually roll at Los Encontrados. Finally, if you are a new or solo D&D player, I highly recommend you play with your local MU's so that you get the most experience possible, as your experience and the knowledge you gain becomes foundation for your character growth when you begin. If there is a group fight that you want to register to join, make sure to let us know, we are often able to sign you up over DMB's. We love to get any feedback! To sign up for my group, send an email to marcosousa@gmail.com. To get updates on your monsters, click the flat version of the character sheet here and if you
